

Stacy Johnson Profile

Mrs. Johnson, who has been an administrator with Britton Deerfield Schools since August of 2012, began her duties as Interim Superintendent on November 25, 2015. The Interim tag fell away on July 1, 2017. Mrs. Johnson was a teacher for 12 years before pursuing her administrative desire. She has earned three master's degrees in education; the first from Marygrove College in Education and the latter of the two from Concordia University in Administration and Curriculum and Instruction. She will receive her central office accreditation as a Superintendent in the fall of 2017.

Mrs. Johnson resides in Deerfield, Michigan. Her husband, Erik serves Britton Deerfield as a physical education and health teacher and, also, the Director of Athletics. Erik and Stacy have two sons—Nico and Carson—both of whom attend BD Schools. Mrs. Johnson enjoys attending sporting events and has also served as the varsity volleyball coach (2015-17) and assistant varsity softball coach in BD. She looks forward to working in Britton Deerfield for a number of years, and to seeing the district grow and prosper.
