

Table of Contents

Forward

vii

CHAPTER 1.	Background of the Physician Assistant Profession in California
	a. The PA Practice Act	1
	b. The Physician Assistant Committee and PA Regulations	1
	c. Evolution of the PA Scope of Practice	1
	(i) Authority to Initiate Orders	2
	(ii) Service in Declared Emergencies	2
	(iii) Drug Orders	2
	(iv) Supervising Physician (“SP”) Approval/Registration	2
	(v) Workers’ Compensation	3
	(vi) Medical Assistants	3
	(vii) Assembly Bill 3	3
CHAPTER 2.	PA Scope of Practice and Supervision Requirements
	a. Dependent Practitioners	5
	b. Delegation of Authority	5
	c. PA as Agent of the Physician	5
	d. SP’s Legal Responsibility	6
	e. Practice Settings	6
	f. Medical Services Performable	6
	(i) Surgical Procedures	7
	(ii) Podiatric Services	7
	(iii) Abortions	7
	(iv) Driver Physicals	8
	(v) Death Certificate	9
	(vi) Prohibited Services	9
	g. Supervision of Medical Assistants (“MAs”)	9
	h. Limit on PAs Supervised	10
	i. Electronic Availability of SP	10
	j. Options for Assuring Supervision	10

	k. Protocols	11
	(i) Required Review and Countersignature	11
	(ii) Adoption of Medical Texts	11
	l. Identification of Supervising Physician in Orders	12
	m. Disclosure of PA Licensure Category	12
	n. Services During Declared Emergencies	12
	o. Good Samaritan Immunity	13
CHAPTER 3.	Written Drug Orders
	a. Delegated Authority	15
	b. Formulary and Protocols	15
	c. Drugs not Covered in Formulary/Protocols	15
	d. Controlled Substances	16
	e. Countersignatures for Schedule II	16
	f. DEA Numbers	16
	g. Receipt of Drug Samples	16
CHAPTER 4.	Documents Every PA Must Have to Practice Legally
	a. Delegation of Services Agreement	19
	b. Guidelines for Supervision	19
	c. Model Documents	20
	d. Protocols	20
	e. Failure To Comply	20
CHAPTER 5.	Medicare, Medi-Cal, Workers' Compensation and Other Payment Rules Applicable to PAs
	a. Medicare Coverage	21
	(i) The Incident to Rule	21
	(ii) Shared Visits/Split Billing in Hospital Setting	22
	(iii) Skilled Nursing Facilities	23
	(iv) Diagnostic Tests	23
	b. Medi-Cal	23
	c. Workers' Compensation	23

CHAPTER 6.	Complying with Applicable Fraud and Abuse Laws
a.	The Enforcement Climate	25
b.	False Claims Act	25
c.	Anti-kickback Statute	26
	(i) Remuneration Defined; the “One Purpose” Rule	26
	(ii) The Importance of Fair Market Value	27
	(iii) Gifts from Vendors	27
	(iv) Penalties for Violations	28
	(v) Safe Harbor Regulations	28
	(vi) State Anti-kickback Statutes	28
d.	State and Federal Self-referral Statutes	28
CHAPTER 7.	Basic Risk Management Strategies for Preventing and Anticipating Malpractice Claims
a.	Compliance with the Law	31
b.	Consent	31
	(i) Elements of Informed Consent	32
	(ii) Documentation of Consent	32
	(iii) Consent for Adult Patients	32
	(iv) Consent for Minors	33
	(v) Emergency Exception	33
	(vi) Therapeutic Exception	34
c.	Documentation	34
	(i) Record Retention	34
	(ii) Other Documentation Tips For Avoiding Liability	35
CHAPTER 8.	Patient Confidentiality
a.	Confidentiality Laws	37
b.	Use or Disclosures Permitted without Written Authorization	37
c.	The “Minimum Necessary Rule”	38
d.	Reasonable Security	38
e.	Types of Information Subject to Special Protection	39
f.	Reporting Requirements	39

CHAPTER 9.	PAs as Independent Contractors
	a. Contractors Compared to Employees	41
	b. Test for Employee Status	41
	c. Traditional Employment Situations	42
	d. Penalties for Inappropriate Independent Contractor Status	42
	e. Permissible Independent Contractor Situations	43
CHAPTER 10.	Major Issues to Address in Employment Agreements
	a. Compensation	45
	b. Applicability of Wage and Hour Laws; Exempt Status	45
	c. Professional Liability Insurance	46
	d. Other Employment Benefits	46
	e. Duties of PA	47
	f. Duties of Employer	47
	g. Term and Termination	47
	h. Non-Compete or Non-Solicitation Provisions	48
	i. Right to Buy Into the Practice	48
	j. Dispute Resolution	48
CHAPTER 11.	The PA's Potential Role in Practice Ownership and Management
	a. Overview	49
	b. Prohibition on Sole PA Ownership	49
	c. PAs as Shareholders in Medical Professional Corporations	49
	(i) Revenue Distribution	50
	(ii) Shareholders' Rights	50
	d. Management Services Organizations	51
	(i) Typical MSO Arrangements	51
	(ii) The MSO Agreement	51
	e. Combination Arrangements	52
	f. Importance of Legal Planning	52

CHAPTER 12.	Disciplinary Action Against PAs
	a. Action Against a PA's License	53
	b. Citations and Fines	55
	c. Revocation of NCCPA Certification	55
APPENDIX 1	Excerpts From The Physician Assistant Practice Act (Business and Professions Code Section 3500 et seq.)	57
APPENDIX 2.	Excerpts From Physician Assistant Regulations (Chapter 13.8 of Title 16, California Code of Regulations)	65
APPENDIX 3.	Excerpts From Miscellaneous Other Laws	71
APPENDIX 4.	Memorandum From Department of Consumer Affairs re PAs Performing Surgery	85
APPENDIX 5.	Delegation of Services Agreements and Guidelines for Supervision	89
APPENDIX 6.	Medicare Carrier Billing Guidelines for Physician Assistants	95
APPENDIX 7.	Medi-Cal Medical Services Manual Provisions Regarding Physician Assistants	111
APPENDIX 8.	Assembly Bill 3	121
APPENDIX 9.	Helpful Websites	129