2018 Vital Questions

- What are some of the unjust structures or types of violence you, your community, or your congregation encounter regularly?
- By what actions, or in what ways, do you see these structures being transformed? In what ways is violence being challenged, and peace and reconciliation pursued in your community or congregation?
- In what ways can we come together to support one another, and collaborate in challenging violence, transforming injustice, and making peace?
- How do you feel God nudging you to act for transformative justice, against violence, or for reconciliation and peace? What resources do you need in this work? What resources and gifts can you offer?
