

CARLSBAD BUSINESS JOURNAL

August 2009

Bob Halliday, left, and a construction team member help with the Hurricane Katrina rebuilding efforts in Mississippi.

San Diego Self Storage execs provide aide

San Diego Self Storage, an organizational entity of Carlsbad Self Storage, takes its community involvement commitment to the highest possible level.

Corporate managers have been rolling up their sleeves to tackle international disaster relief projects since 1990 by providing financial support and engaging in first response rebuilding efforts for communities stricken by natural disasters.

San Diego Self Storage Managing Partner Bob Halliday has participated on 52 construction teams. He began his disaster relief volunteer involvement with Hurricane Hugo in 1990, then Hurricane Floyd and, most recently, Hurricane Katrina.

Halliday also built sheds for victims of the San Diego wildfires and was instrumental in the construction of a daycare center for disabled children in Tijuana.

For more information, visit www.sandiegoselfstorage.com.