Easter Greening of the Cross

Our church has a tradition of 'greening the cross' every Easter Sunday, that is, adorning the cross with fresh flowers. This is to symbolize the new life now available to us in Christ. Practically speaking, this means that we need flowers with which to 'green the cross'. If you have flowers blooming in your garden with stems of at least 3 inches, please bring them in on Easter Sunday, April 16, before services.
