

Suzanne Weatherall serves as senior vice president, property management, commercial and is responsible for the development and implementation of commercial leasing and management strategies to create value and ensure the success of Midway's commercial developments. Suzanne is a member of Midway's leadership team.

With more than 25 years experience in the management and leasing of high profile retail centers, Suzanne joined Midway in 2009 as director, leasing. Prior to joining Midway, Suzanne served as regional leasing director for Weingarten Realty Investors, a Houston based REIT. Suzanne was responsible for the financial performance and growth of 45 retail properties totaling 6.2 million square feet located in Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, St. Louis and Chicago. Prior to her involvement in leasing, Suzanne was associate director of property management for the Central Region with Weingarten Realty Investors, overseeing the management of 87 retail properties totaling over 12 million square feet located in Houston, Dallas, Kansas City, St. Louis, Amarillo, Lubbock, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Suzanne is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, receiving a BBA in Real Estate and a BBA in Finance. She is a licensed real estate professional, also holding the designation of Certified Property Manager from the Institute of Real Estate Management. Suzanne is an active member with the International Council of Shopping Centers, serving on the ICSC Texas Conference Planning Committee for the past five years.