

MAPPING Q

JOIN US

Mapping Q is an innovative community arts education program that invites LGBTQ+ youth ages 13-24 to explore representations of self within art, museums, and the wider community.

Participants that complete the program will have artwork displayed at The University Of Arizona Museum of Art (UAMA).

Mapping Q is in partnership with ALLY (Arizona Life Links for Youth), a suicide prevention program focused on reducing suicides. ALLY is a youth driven program and supports participants to become peer leaders who create change in their communities.

Food, art supplies and bus passes will be provided at every session!

Participating youth also will also receive art kits and sketchbooks- no RSVP required.

Exhibition runs Oct. 4 - Jan. 13 @ UAMA
