Lost Copy

Duplicate

Duplicate
ALFALFA FIELD DAY

Tuesday, August 16, 1994
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon
West Side Research and Extension Center

Choosing Alfalfa Cultivars
Dan Putnam & Gary Peterson, U.C. Davis

Forage Quality - Are There Differences Between Varieties?
Dan Putnam, U.C. Davis

Establishing an Alfalfa Stand - When and How?
Marsha Campbell, U.C. Farm Advisor, Stanislaus County

Interplanting Grasses Into an Established Alfalfa Stand - Implications for Pests, Weeds and Yield
Tim Prather, Regional IPM Specialist, U.C. Kearney Agricultural Center

The Potential for Developing Resistance to the Silverleaf Whitefly
Larry Teuber, Mike Rupert, Larry Gibbs, Ken Taggard, U.C. Davis

Uniform Trials for Evaluating Alfalfa Seed Production
Larry Teuber, Melissa Kimball, Eric Knapp, U.C. Davis and Shannon Mueller, U.C. Farm Advisor, Fresno County

BEAN FIELD TOUR

Thursday, August 25, 1994
8:30 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.
U. C. Kearney Agricultural Center

• Single Flush and Double Flush Blackeye Yield Trial
• Root Knot Nematode Screening Trial
• Cowpea Germplasm Nursery for Lygus Screening
• Blackeye, Large and Baby Lima, and Common Bean Trial for Evaluation of Lygus Resistance

Lunch on your own en route to Shafter Field Station where we will tour an Irrigation Management Trial from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m.
Special Meeting Announcements Inside