FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

PART II

Panel of the Techniques of Writing Grants

How? When? Where? How Much?

Time: Nov. 11, 1980
Tuesday, 4-6pm

Place: C-701

A 2 hr workshop on the tactics of grant writing has been planned by the Equal Opportunity Committee of the Academic Senate and the Office of the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. Although this program is being planned for junior faculty, graduate students and post-doctoral fellows are also invited to attend.

Dorothy F. Bainton
Associate Professor of Pathology
School of Medicine

M. Margaret Clark
Professor of Anthropology
Epid. and Intl. Health

Susan R. Gortner
Associate Dean
School of Nursing

John S. Greenspan
Chair of Committee on Research
School of Dentistry

Eleanor V. Haas
Medical Editor
Cancer Research Institute

Albert R. Jonsen
Professor of Ethics
School of Medicine

Irwin D. Kuntz
Prof. Phar. Chem.
School of Pharmacy

John Klimek
Office of Extramural Support

G. Michael Teague
Business Administrator
Cancer Research Institute
FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

PART II - 1982

Panel on the Improvement of Teaching Techniques

Time: February 9, 1982
Tuesday, 3-5 p.m.

Place: HSW - 303

A two hour workshop on the techniques of teaching has been planned by the Equal Opportunity Committee of the Academic Senate and the Office of the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. Although this program is being planned for junior faculty, graduate students and postdoctoral fellows are also invited to attend.

Several outstanding faculty members will share their expertise in teaching in several settings: lecture, seminar, and clinical. Ample time will be provided for the panel to answer questions.

Put this date on your calendar!

Please notify the Office of the Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs if you plan to attend, extension 1881.
The Equal Opportunity Committee of the Academic Senate and the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs invite all junior faculty, graduate students and postdoctoral fellows to this two hour program on Scientific Writing and Publishing.

Several distinguished researchers, writers and editors will share their insights on many of the problems/opportunities facing any investigator as s/he prepares a manuscript for submission to a scientific journal, or textbook publisher. Areas to be explored will include, but not be limited to: choosing the "right" journal, determining whom to include on the list of authors, selecting and designing the graphic work to be included, planning how many papers can be generated from the data/results, and deciding on whether to publish several quick notes or to wait for a major paper. Questions from, and discussions with, the audience will be encouraged.

Put this date on your calendar!

Please notify the office of the Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs if you plan to attend (x1881).
A workshop on "Grantsmanship" has been planned by the Equal Opportunity Committee of the Academic Senate, and the Office of the Academic Vice Chancellor. The workshop will be a panel discussion by several distinguished faculty members who will share their expertise in securing extra-mural support. Emphasis will be on "writing a successful grant." Ample time will be provided for a question and answer period.

TIME: May 23, 1983
3:00 - 5:00 pm

PLACE: HSW-303

Although this program is intended primarily for junior faculty, post-doctoral fellows, advanced graduate students and other interested faculty are also invited to attend.

Please notify the Office of the Academic Vice Chancellor (x1881) if you plan to attend.

Keith R. Wilson
Assistant Vice Chancellor,
Academic Services