ATTENDANCE

1,416 students, teachers, parents, chaperones and supporters attended the convention held in Cheyenne. All 53 chapters from across Wyoming were represented.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

A total of $103,180.00 was awarded to Wyoming FFA members. This includes college scholarships from the Wyoming FFA Foundation and their partners, National FFA, and college scholarships tied to career and leadership development event awards.

MAJOR SPONSORS

ECONOMIC IMPACT

According to the Cheyenne Visitors and Convention Bureau, the Wyoming FFA Convention had an economic impact of $1,347,107.00.

INDUSTRY TOURS

FFA Members learned about Cheyenne’s history with trolley tours, toured the Walmart Distribution Center and also Wyoming Machinery Company.

MOBILE APP

New this year, Wyoming FFA went mobile. 1,092 people downloaded the app and had access to the schedule, surveys, sponsors, and key information for convention.
AWARDS

215 FFA Members were awarded the State FFA Degree, which is highest award bestowed on an FFA member at the state level. Other members were recognized for their outstanding Supervised Agricultural Experience projects through proficiency awards, star awards and agriscience fair awards.

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOPS & CAREER FAIR

Members were able to attend workshops on these topics: Financial smarts, values and ethics, personal growth, agricultural organizations, and swing dancing. Colleges, business, military and industry representatives visited with members at the career fair.

COMPETITIONS

22 Career and Leadership Development Events. Students are able to compete in multiple events which develop individual college and career readiness skills through personal growth and career success. 1,450 is the total number of times students’ competed.