Dear Passionate Business Owner,

Are you frustrated by the endless cycle of ‘just getting by paying bills’ month after month?

Do you wish you knew the exact steps to take to grow your business so you can start enjoying your life again?

Do you feel like you’re standing on the sidelines watching others grow their business, while you continue to work your tush off with little reward or gratification?

Are you exhausted 'giving giving giving' and not getting back?

Have you had enough of bouncing from coach to coach, program to program, and not getting the support, expertise, and answers you need?

Your Business Has Become Your Busy-Ness

You pour your heart into your work. You're doing everything you feel is right for your business—working long hours, networking, letting clients and customers know about what you provide and how your service can change their lives--and yet you're still not making the money or getting the recognition you desire and deserve.

You're saying to yourself, "I'm exhausted trying to do this all on my own, trying to figure out why it's so hard, but I don't know what to do."

I know exactly how you feel. A few years ago, I was overwhelmed with all the busy-ness in my businesses...from personal finance advisor to CFO of a small business to registered nurse to owning a wellness and healing center.

And even though I was really good at doing all these things, and really LOVED the aspect of giving and helping people, I just couldn't seem to get my business to make the money I know I should be making. I was doing all the right things, but the money I knew I should be making wasn't coming in...and I couldn't understand why.

Not only was I the health practitioner in my healing center, but I was doing the bookkeeping, ordering supplies, working with the vendors and contractors, scheduling, office managing, doing the marketing and advertising...you name it, I did it.

Bottom line, I ended up exhausted and burned out.

It seemed that there was no time to devote to doing what I loved because all my time was taken up with doing all the other stuff you have to do to keep a business afloat.

This went on for months, day in and day out. I tried doing different things, but nothing seemed to work.

Not only was I doing all these things all by myself, I was trying to figure it all out all by myself as well! (I come from a long line of control freaks!)

How crazy is that?

And yet, this is how most entrepreneurs operate. Why? Because it's in our genes. We're programmed to nurture, give, and do what we have to to survive and make it work...no matter what the cost, no matter what the sacrifice.

Your business is 'your baby.' You love it. Unconditionally. You want nothing more than to see it grow; to see your baby shine, flourish, inspire, and give back to the world.

So you do everything in your power to make sure your baby gets everything it needs, even at the expense of your 'self.' You feed it, care for it, stay up late into the night—night after night—making certain that everything's ok. You pour your heart and soul into your baby, your business. You spend whatever it takes to keep it alive, to support it and help it grow.

You do all this and more...until there's nothing left for you to give...and you're completely, totally spent and at your wit's end, because you've done everything all by yourself.

Time for a Transformation

But how do you change that? How do you not go in circles anymore?

Sometimes it takes getting sideswiped before you stop and look at what's going on around you. In my case, the sign was being totally wiped out and spent. I reached my limit of going going going day in and day with nothing changing. It was as if I pushed myself beyond the brink, and LIFE pushed back.

I told myself 'no more.' I began my wellness center because I wanted a career that was truly satisfying, that filled me spiritually and emotionally. I wanted to create a truly luxurious lifestyle for myself and family. But it simply wasn't working out the way I'd expected.

This out of control lifestyle wasn't just happening to me. I saw the same behavior in some of my friends, also entrepreneurs. I witnessed really smart entrepreneurs losing focus, feeling like their mission and passion was perhaps too big to realize, putting all they had into their businesses and getting very little back in return.

Some were making money but had no life. Others were having trouble getting their businesses off the ground PLUS they had no life. Others still had lost that spark and passion and fire that propelled them when they first started, but had died because of lost vision and focus.

I knew there had to be a better way.

I realized that my life and the way I approached business HAD TO CHANGE.

When speaking with other entrepreneurs and business owners, I discovered we all had so much in common, so many similarities. We’re...

- ✓ Dedicated to our mission and purpose
- ✓ Highly sensitive to the needs of our clients
- ✓ Driven to express and share our true Genius
- ✓ Deeply authentic in the execution of our work
- ✓ Natural compassionate leaders and teachers in our niche

Do you recognize yourself in this list?

End the Self Sabotage

I also discovered that a lot of the things that bogged me down and got in the way of growing my business was no different than what the other creative were experiencing in theirs. In fact, there were so many similarities it was scary!

Here are just some of the things that stop you from having the lifestyle you crave, keep you from growing your business, wear you down, and prevent you from making the money you deserve:

- ✓ Independent to a fault
- ✓ Need to do it all yourself
- ✓ Desire to be all things to all people
- ✓ Fly by the seat of your pants
- ✓ Too scared to raise your prices or fees
- ✓ Not charging what you're worth
- ✓ Workaholic lifestyle
- ✓ Overworked, underpaid
- ✓ Lack of branding
- ✓ Nonexistent marketing strategy
- ✓ No 'plan of action'
- ✓ Lack of revenue goals
- ✓ Your message is unclear
- ✓ Products or services are undefined
- ✓ Poor online and offline presence
- ✓ Absence of a business coach or mentor

How many of the things on this list are consuming your time and limiting your success? This is just the tip of the iceberg! It's so difficult to transform your business when you can't see what needs to get done AND you don't know what to do.

I realized that there was so much more I needed to know in my business to be successful. It wasn't about doing MORE. It was about doing it STRATEGICALLY.

Recognizing what I had to do and then implementing those things in a strategic, step by step process to get my life back and create a successful, thriving business was the key that turned it all around for me.

Within months of focusing on all the right things, getting crystal clear on my brand and marketing, and getting the expert help, support, and coaching I needed...

Everything turned around.

It worked so well, in fact, that I took what I learned and created a personally tailored, all-encompassing system that consistently gets amazing results for anyone who puts it into action.

Not only that, the professionals and entrepreneurs who used this system turned their businesses and lifestyles completely around as well.

What I discovered is that the results I witnessed from anyone who put this system into practice were consistent and deeply profound.

One of the common traits among clients I work with is that they make things harder on themselves than necessary. I'm happy to report that this system makes it easy for you. What clients experience is a very subtle, elegant yet powerful shift. This 'shift' gracefully infuses your 'inner game' with an enlightening spark, so that you and your business shine and sizzle like never before.

A Totally New Way

How would you like to turn your business around? How would it feel to have more freedom, more joy, more confidence when it comes to building your business and sharing your message with the world? What would it mean to you to see your clients totally transform their lives and business?

What would it feel like to...

- ✓ End the struggle?
- ✓ Take your life back?
- ✓ Know exactly how to run your business instead of your business running you?
- ✓ Attract as many ideal clients as you wanted?
- ✓ Charge higher fees without feeling guilty?
- ✓ Have all your systems run like clockwork?
- ✓ Create a brand that reflects exactly who YOU are?
- ✓ Have personalized results-oriented strategies for YOUR business?
- ✓ Get your message across with crystal clarity in one sentence?

- ✓ Know exactly what to do with your marketing?
- ✓ Speak from the stage with confidence and authority?
- ✓ Be recognized as the expert Leader of your niche
- ✓ Get paid what you're worth?
- ✓ Wake up each day feeling alive with passion and excitement?
- ✓
