

MWBEZone Whiteboard Video Script

Dean Edelson

There you are... an eager entrepreneurial business owner “sitting on your hands” with little revenue coming in to make ends meet...and nothing on the horizon.

UGHHH!!!!

If you're a minority...woman...or disadvantaged business owner who's struggling to find gratifying opportunities and can't seem to win high paying MWBE business contracts, then you need to watch this video...

Because in the next 3 minutes, you're going to find out how you can quickly & easily win guaranteed, long term lucrative government contracts...over and over again.

Federal, State, and City Government Agencies are mandated to allot hundreds of millions in cash payouts to women, minority, and disadvantaged business owners nationwide to fill these contracts. They need to fill them directly with you or your company, or subcontract to you through another contractor.

In fact, the Government is desperate to fill these contracts, because there's more jobs than people or vendors to fill them, and they're required to meet their MWBE goals. They're even more eager to pay you...and pay you extremely well. And there's no more sure thing than getting a secure paycheck from the Government.

In New York City recently, just 3 contracts alone paid out $114,925,000 to women, minorities, and disadvantaged business owners!!

Are you ready for YOUR piece of the pie?

Though you may not have known about these tremendous opportunities before, they've been around for a long time. If you're already a certified contractor, then you know how fantastic it is to just pick and choose the contract that's right for you.

If you're not certified, don't worry. Certification is not as difficult as you may think.

The problem is, these opportunities can be tough to find. Why? Because there are literally hundreds and thousands of city, state, and federal government agencies... each with their own website, each with their own contract listings. Just the thought of having to sift and pour through the mountains of contracts to find the ones that meet MWBE standards and goals is enough to make you want to pull your hair out in frustration.

That amounts to hours and days you have to spend tediously surfing and searching the web for the contract you want. On top of that, each contract opportunity is buried deep in the confusing, disorganized maze of that agency's web pages.

It's like trying to find a needle in a haystack. And, if you're lucky enough to find the listing, there's a good chance the information is old and outdated AND that you've missed the application and bid deadline!

You also know that trying to get your questions answered when you call an agency is extremely challenging. By the time someone does pick up the phone, Haley's Comet has come and gone again. (artist note: the year is 2061).

Oh...and good luck getting the right help, support, and training you need to actually win a contract bid. Did you really believe the agencies were going to happily hold your hand and skip you through the process?

Fortunately, underdog champion (artist note: Superhero Joe with in tights with cape, flexing muscles, big smile, big MWBEzone insignia on chest) and MWBE Expert Joe Gross created "MWBEzone.com"

Joe found a UNIQUE way to completely eliminate all the runaround, frustration, and wasted time spent trying to find the plum contracts.

See, Joe knows exactly how the government operates when it comes to contract opportunities and agency listings. Joe has helped many satisfied entrepreneurs and business owners. And when you know how the system works, well...that's GREAT NEWS for you!

Joe made it easy for you to find and identify the contracts that have the goals and requirements specific to you and your business.

In fact, he made it so easy you don't even have to search the web! Every possible MWBE government opportunity is all in one central place. And...he doesn't post contracts that don't have minority, women or disadvantaged business (note to speaker: these are separate classifications, not all the same) subcontracting goals. You find what you're looking for in minutes instead of days or weeks. Joe did all the heavy lifting for you!

It gets better. You also get instant Twitter feeds and weekly emails sent right to your inbox or mobile device letting you know when the latest and greatest MWBE contract opportunities are available.

Imagine, you not only get all the best paying relevant contract opportunities right at your fingertips all in one place, you also get to move to the front of the line to cherry pick the golden fruit...without settling for the leftover scraps that everyone else is fighting over.

It's like showing up at your favorite restaurant on a Saturday night without a reservation and getting seated at the best table in the house!

And no more groping around in the dark when it comes to getting the right training, tools, and strategies to give you the edge in winning the contract. Everything you need to land the contract you crave is right at your fingertips.
