Training

Cellebrite Online On Demand Online training and certification courses offer organizations great efficiencies. On Demand Online courses are ideal for:

- Organizations with travel restrictions
- Individuals unable to take time off the job to attend classroom training
- Individuals who simply prefer self-paced learning available 24 / 7

Cellebrite's benchmark training curriculum is delivered On Demand Online without compromise. Each module is designed to engage students with dynamic navigation and regular 'learning checks' to provide real-time feedback on progress. Interactive lessons guide the learners in the proper use of UFED Technology, by providing practice exercises that enable skill development.

Students who do not already have or have access to currently licensed Cellebrite hardware and software are encouraged to take one of our Instructor-Led or Live Online classes.

This document provides information about the required materials for Cellebrite Training's Online On-Demand classes which impact the student's ability to complete their class.

OVERVIEW OF REQUIRED MATERIALS FOR ONLINE ON-DEMAND CLASSES

As part of the Online On-Demand classes, Cellebrite provides students with a variety of tools and resources to complete the class. Materials are provided in a variety of ways:

- ALL Online On-Demand Classes include lectures, resources, and activities provided online
- ALL Online On-Demand Classes require a student manual which will be shipped*
- SOME Online On-Demand Classes also require additional tools and resources that will be shipped in a Student Kit

Online On-Demand Classes are designed for students who already own or have access to currently licensed Cellebrite hardware and software prior to starting the class.
