

Sub line: Welcome to the elite...

Hey,

How many guys do you know that constantly dream of a better dating life with women, but don't do anything to make it happen?

Maybe you were that guy.

They say things like "I deserve more" or "I'm not good enough."

I want to congratulate you, because you took the first step. And because you made this important decision to invest in yourself and your future, I want to share with you some of my best material.

I know that I have to prove myself to you. There are a LOT of people you could listen to, so why should you listen to me?

For one, I'm not interested in teaching what other dating or pick up "experts" teach - seduction and deception. I want you to meet women and create authentic connections that make it impossible for them NOT to love you and want you in their bed.

Do you know why those so-called experts never talking about meeting women by being honest? Because they don't know how.

Over the course of the past 8 years I've gone from social anxiety ridden "loser" to becoming a highly sought-after dating coach and I'd like to share with you how I did that...and how I've taught thousands of my students to become amazing with women as well.

I want to share with you material I've never shared before, including videos, interviews, and strategies you can use to meet and turn on beautiful women.

Here's what I'll be sending you over the next few days and weeks:

- A simple two-step process to make things sexual with a woman.

- The secret 3 word phrase that triggers "sexual inception" and turns women on instantly.
- The reason why you should never try to impress her and why you should never say "get laid" again (99 percent of guys don't know this.)
- The weird secret I learned from a country song that eliminates approach anxiety forever.

My goal is to make the next week worth more than any other course you've paid for or better than any advice you've received from a self-proclaimed "pick up artist."

My goal is to prove that my free material is better than other people's paid stuff.

In exchange, I ask that you take action on my material. If your plan is just to "read and forget" then this isn't for you.

But if you're ready to start taking action and learn how to get almost any woman you desire, then I have a special video for you today.

It's called Why you should never try to "Get Laid"

I only share it with people like you, who've signed up for this private list. In it you'll learn how to turn women on fast and take them from the bar (or coffee shop, club, or park) to the couch and then to the bedroom.

This is the first video in a 3 part series I recorded with Ian Owen.

Today you're getting video 1 which teaches you how to get beautiful women by being honest and authentic with them.

Video 2 is called How to make approaching women simple and fun.

And video 3, which is probably the best of all 3 is called Sexual Inception - How to create a Sexual Spark with every woman you meet.

This first video will prepare you for this week's content, so set aside time to watch to it. You can even just listen to the video if you want.

Put in your headphones and go for a walk or drive. Or better yet - get out your notebook and really focus. I'm confident you'll get a ton out of it.

>>> Check it out here

Before I sign off I want to be clear about one thing. You will be receiving emails pretty much every day. They will have actionable advice and insights that you haven't seen anywhere else.

I will also be selling products. These are products that I've spent years developing and I truly believe are completely unique to the dating market.

That being said, if me "selling" makes you uncomfortable or pisses you off, then you should unsubscribe now. Don't worry, you won't hurt my feelings.

I just want to be sure that the people who get these emails are guys that are deadly serious about improving their dating and sex lives.

Oh also, I'm gonna use some swear words. That's how I talk so it's how I write.

That's all for today. make sure you watch the video below.
