All Classical Portland Extends Reach to Corvallis

PORTLAND, Ore., October 3, 2014—All Classical Portland is pleased to announce the addition of a repeater station in Corvallis at 95.7FM, serving the “heart of the valley” and its extended communities of Philomath and Albany.

Partnering with KBOO to share costs and management, the new translator sits on a forest mountaintop on the Oregon State University grounds.

This new station emits an exceptionally strong signal, offering crystal clear sound quality and an extensive reach throughout west central Oregon. Broadcasts include detailed music playlists on radios that display text.

Jack Allen, All Classical CEO and President, says, “We are absolutely thrilled to launch this new station and to deepen our relationship with OSU and the greater Corvallis community. Many students in particular find our music to be a helpful study aid, so we are especially happy to provide a reliable source for 24/7 commercial free classical music in the heart of the valley.”

All Classical Portland is Portland, Oregon’s classical radio station. Established in 1983, our mission is to advance knowledge of and appreciation for classical music; to build and sustain culturally vibrant local and global communities around this art form; to reflect the spirit of the Pacific Northwest; and to foster integrity, quality, and innovation in all that we do.
