Mash-Up Knitting Plan

Back

Anything different?

The Shell Lace pattern written on page 31, and charted on page 32, is repeated as many times as possible within the neck bind-offs on your back.

The lace repeat is a multiple of 11 sts plus 12; find the largest number of repeats below the number of stitches you bind off in the back neck, and place lace markers around those stitches after you complete your ribbing.

Switch center-most marked stitches to Shell Lace for Back until neck bind-offs.

Front(s)

Anything different?

Similarly, the Shell Lace pattern for Front (pages 31/32) are repeated as many times as possible in the number of neck stitches you have. The repeat is a straight 12 stitches this time, plus 2 stitches of Stockinette on the edge for selvedge.

Place a lace marker where appropriate and switch the edge stitches to lace and 2 stitches selvedge after the trim, until the neck bind-offs.
