Terms and Condition

1. Ale's Paella LLC is not responsible for any allergic reactions you or your guest may experience, or any other medical condition that may arise from consuming raw, or undercooked meats, poultry, fish, shellfish, eggs, or unpasteurized milk products.
2. The chef will cook everything, fresh on site and will serve the paella. The chef will stay 1 hour after the serve time. But if more time is needed. There will be a cost of $50.00 for each additional hour ( by each chef ).
3. We ask the client or person, responsible of accepting the terms of the quote/invoice, to review all details pertinent to the service noted. The service will include only what is stated. Please review, sign and confirm.
4. By signing this invoice I authorize Ale's Paella LLC to charge the cost of the event and/or any overcharge, to any Credit Card given by any family member, friend or any other person related to the event.
5. The total cost of the event must be paid 3 days before service.
6. We are not responsible for accidents caused by the guests of the event, with our cooking equipment. We are not responsible for the children that must be taken care by their parents. Advise: do not put the drinks near the cooking area, to avoid traffic of guests walking by all the time.
7. Our cooks will not make any recipe or platter other than our own or any other food that hasn't been agreed upon previously and it's already in our invoice.
8. We are not responsible of moving any patio furniture or any other item to accommodate our work area.
9. For the preparation of food, I agree to provide a shaded shelter in case of rain and protection from the sun. The shelter must have open sides.
