Daniel Schotsburg ~ Master Musician

I had the pleasure of meeting and working energetically with Daniel Schotsburg while in Amsterdam in June of 2013. He is dedicated to assisting humanity with awakening and accessing their Higher Self. His music is designed to work with the mind, body, spirit connection. When we met, I knew he was destined to positively impact humanity during this amazing time in history.

When I first heard his music, I immediately wanted to partner with him to assist humanity with remembering their truth. This collaboration is Spirit directed and it is our utmost heartfelt desire to be of service to the world.

Daniel has graciously offered a special package for the full versions of the music you have experienced during the Authenticity of the Heart 13 Day Journey series.
