

AIR & WASTE MANAGEMENT

A S S O C I A T I O N

Grand Canyon Section

Annual Scholarship

The Air & Waste Management Association (AWMA) Grand Canyon Section announces the availability of 2019-2020 scholarship.

- OBJECTIVE: The objective of this scholarship program is to aid and encourage students who plan to enter the field of air and waste management or a related environmental field. The scholarship recipients will be decided based on a technical paper competition.
- ELIGIBILITY: All undergraduate and graduate college / university students who are enrolled in the state of Arizona for the academic years 2018-2019 and plan to be enrolled in 2019-2020 and are in a program of study leading to a career in an environmentally-related field are eligible.
- AWARD: Technical Paper Competition: There will be up to three awards for best technical paper (award = $1,500 1st prize). This paper must be an original work, solely authored by the applicant and may consist of one of the following:
- A literature review, including a section on relevance and recommendations.
 - A report on a research project
 - A proposed research plan
- The awards are made based on the quality of the paper submitted (relevance of topic, organization / writing ability, quality of research plan, technical merit, bibliography).
- The award winners will also receive a student membership in the International A&WMA and local Grand Canyon A&WMA section. A committee of AWMA Grand Canyon Section members will judge the entries. Entries must be based on a technical paper and be received on or before the deadline.
- HOW TO APPLY & WHAT TO SEND: Send three (3) copies of each of the following:
- A completed application form (see below).
 - Your technical paper.
- An electronic version of the application may be obtained on our web site at www.awma-gcs.org/scholarship.html
