God's Spirit Gives Gifts :: for Sunday, May 19

Book of Ephesians: Spiritual Gifts :: Ephesians 4:1-16

Share highs and lows of the day.

Check off readings as you go...

___ Read 1 Corinthians 12:7-11 from the Bible

- What are your strengths? What kind(s) of gifts has God given to you?
- How can you use your gifts to benefit the church?
- Share with your children the importance of respecting the spiritual gifts that others have. Encourage them to be in unity with those who may have different strengths than they do.

[Child's name], may God's Spirit give you power to serve others with the gifts He's given you.

Thank God for the highs, seek wisdom for the lows.

REMEMBER VERSE!

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things! - Galatians 5:22-23

CONNECT AS A FAMILY!

Choose a puzzle to complete with your child this week. As you construct the puzzle, talk about how the different pieces fit together. Explain to your child that, though the pieces are all different, you need all of them to complete the picture. One is not more important than another and without any of them, the puzzle will not be complete.

Explain to your child how this relates to the spiritual gifts God gives us. Share that God's desire is that we work in unity with one another.

Read Ephesians 4:1–16.
