

2013 LATE HARVEST RIESLING

A once in a lifetime vintage. The final bottling from vines which after 46 years succumbed to Phylloxera. Chehalem Mountain Vineyard was established In 1968 by Dick Erath, a pioneer of the Oregon Wine industry. He brought Riesling cuttings from Wente Vineyard and planted them in a walnut orchard. This Beacon Hill Riesling is a fitting tribute to this series of historic wines.
