

2014 CHEHALEM MT. VINEYARD PINOT GRIS

The very last vintage from the very first vineyard that Dick Erath planted in the late 1960's. Very rarely do you have an opportunity to enjoy a Willamette Valley grown old vine Pinot Gris.

- Varietal: 100% Pinot Gris
- Farming: Chehalem Mountain Vineyard planted in 1968, dry farmed, harvested October 4th, 2014. Picked at 24' brix
- Whole cluster pressed, oxidative juice handling (browning in press pan), aged in stainless steel tanks, no Lees stirring occurred.
- Production: 75 Cases

TASTING NOTES

Nose: White Flowers, Pineapple, Candied Lemon

Palette: Minerality, Melon, Citrus