SEA SUN SAND, PUTS LIMBO AND RAINCOAT, IN CLOUD CUCKOO LAND.

Barry "Neveragain" Rayner ended a long standing embargo when she participated in HASHING activities by providing a gourmet selection of snacks and attending BHHB's first outstation buffet dinner.

All this after Limbo and Raincoat had set the PACK alight with a scintillating RIDE that had the PACK searching their brain cells to find as many superlatives as possible to describe their RIDE #18. Limbo modestly took full credit for the TRAIL and Raincoat promised and produced a TRAIL of equal brilliance the following morning.

For more on the RIDES read on inside as U-Bend ooohs and aaahs whilst Wheel-Wobble recounts the sweeps tale...gripping stuff.....

CHRIS "QUICKSILVER" & JOEL "ROCKET" ENDERLE are the HARES for the "JUST DO IT" RIDE #20 on Sunday December 12, 1993 meeting at 14:00 & Rolling-off promptly at 15:00.

MIS-DIRECTIONS:

Heading towards Pattaya zero your odometer at the end of the expressway. Keep in the central lane and make a U-turn back towards Bangkok at the Q8 garage at 14.5kms. Exit into the local traffic lane on your LEFT at the first and ONLY opportunity. Turn LEFT at the Isuzi showroom into Soi Maha Chai after approximately 18.2kms. Follow the Soi until you cross a steep khlong bridge at approximately 19.2kms. At approximately 19.6kms you will see the Mung Yai Restaurant on your RIGHT hand side where you should park and prepare for RIDE #20.

CHECKBACK RIDE #18 on Saturday November 20, 1993 @ 15:00.

HARE: Don"Limbo"Lavoie & Bob"Raincoat"Rayner.

THE OOOHS AND AAAHS RIDE scribbed by Karis"U-Bend"Battram.

(Eds note, as per BHHB tradition last months Hare does the write-up)

Bangseray's Sea Sun Sand Resort welcomed the delegates of Poonipat Finance & Securities Co. Ltd. but looked bemused when these "wheels" of high finance rolled up on their bikes! Was it the exotic location or the reputation of the HARES (that renowned veteran duo (of HASHING!)) that lured a record (Eds note: for an outstation RIDE) forty seven(47) strong PACK out to RIDE with the BHHB on this fine Saturday afternoon?

In the G.S's absence (congratulations to Tricia"Goose" & Lem"Gander" Morgan and newly arrived Rhian(Eds note, pronounced like zee French rien?)), his J.M.ness and his horn took charge of the situation and at 3.00pm sharp we set off in the direction of the Sukhumvit Road.

Rain the previous evening and another bucket full just prior to our departure made the track a trifle muddy.

The first hill, after 500meters, sorted out the flowers from the weeds, the men from the boys and the sheep from the goats etc. The flowers, men and sheep, comprising primarily of the Nike contingent, "just did it" and sped off, quickly disappearing from view. Little-weed breathlessly enquired whether this classified as "a hill" and the main peleton chugged along up. (Eds note, we doers sped on ahead blazing the trail for the PACK!) Several turned back while some visitors were delayed due to technical troubles. (Eds note, such as sore butts etc? Am later claimed to have a bruised p....).

Once across the main road we were immersed in beautiful country side with stunning vistas in all directions. Superlatives failed us so we just oohed and aaahed instead. (Eds note, I was glad that Limbo and Raincoat had left the horrors of cobra swamp far behind instead of the Horrors...).

The HARES graciously swept the TRAIL and had even marked "SEANIC VIEWS" (Eds note, not a typo!) for us to stop and enjoy. Oooh, aaah and more oohs. With a lashing of CHECKS and U-BENDS Limbo and Raincoat successfully managed to bring the PACK ON-IN together after 23kms and 2 hours except for Sheepshagger and Am who arrived 1 1/2 hours later on paper all the way! (Eds note, we FRB's were in after 102 minutes having covered a minimum of 26 kms).

In the meantime Barry"Neveragain"Rayner aided by Dainty and Didi had been busy preparing some delicious snacks for the ravenous PACK who swept the table like a swarm of locusts. (Eds note, don't wait nine years to participate in a HASH function again Neveragain, and I loved the home cooked and cured sausages!).

At the CIRCLE DOWN-DOWNS were awarded to the HARES, NEWSPOKES.....Bill and Jonathan Black, Thom,Pring, Paul,Praew and Prom Sirisant, At and Max Eichener, VISITORS Eddy, Layla, Darcy and Steve, COMPETITION WINNERS with "T-shirts" Gwen, Gareth and David, FASTEST Wheel-Wobble, LONGEST Joel"Rocket"Enderle, NIBBLES Neveragain and Dainty, UNTOUCHABALLS Blackwater and Mad-Max, NEXT MONTHS HARES Chris"Quicksilver" and Rocket Enderle, and LATECOMERS Sheepshagger and AM.

The evening was rounded off with a hearty sea food buffet on the terrace where we stuffed our gobs and quaffed our ale under the stars. The die-hards finally retired at 1:00am when they couldn't play charades anymore. (Eds note, I interpreted Peru as Furpooh).

A great day recorded for posterity in the annuls of BHHB and many thanks to Limbo, Raincoat, Neveragain and Dainty...ON-ON.

CHECKBACK RIDE #19 on November 21, 1993 @ 10:00.

HARE: Bob"Raincoat"Rayner & Co-Hare Don"Limbo"Lavoie.

THE SWEEPS TALE scribbed by last months Co-Hare: Wheel-Wobble.

When the Hare had given the ROLL-OFF time as 10:00 the night before there were many of us who did not believe that it was humanly possible to set a TRAIL to match that of RIDE #18, but, this dynamic duo proved all the skeptics well and truly wrong. The Co-Hare had predicted a tougher TRAIL running to around 35kms that would take two to three hours to RIDE and yes, he is clairvoyant. It was an absolutely superb RIDE from start to finish and I could not find enough superlatives in the dictionary to do it justice.

Promptly at 10:00 the Pack set off with their bums resting gingerly on their saddles after the exertions of the day before. Pink paper was the order of the day as we wove our way through the cool shade of the trees and out onto the promenade where the sun was beginning to shimmer. A couple of well laid CHECKS and U-BENDS saw us through the fish market where the vendors provided hom-dii. Confusion on the far side of the town as the PACK was drawn into a loop and yet another U-BEND, before setting off through the verdant paddies. Oh-shit was scrawled in flour where the HARE had been disturbed by a dog setting a U-BEND. This one led us to ford a stream twice which I found to be most enjoyable. Soon we were crossing the Highway and were quickly drawn into another series of U-BENDS and CHECKS which led us into a four winds CHECK overlooking a sparkling lake. It was here that Sue"Meteor"Curtis and Chris"Quicksilver"Enderle, named by Mudmagnet as "the fast ladies" were last seen, heard yes, but seen no. The TRAIL continued up hill with a clever back CHECK at the head of a culvert and a huge U-BEND into a corn field!!!! U-Bend started sneezing from then on as her pollen level hit mega. As on RIDE #18 we passed the Buddha to be outlined on the face of an escarpment. A cool cruise along some steaming hot tarmac and then a sharp turn left which set us down in the quarry coffee shop for some light refreshments. Another U-BEND back to the WAT just beyond the quarry sent us into a short ascent and then a fairly long descent and another brilliantly laid U-BEND. From there we had a steep climb to a "scenic" view and then a thrilling descent into another steep climb and round the corner into, you guessed it, a U-BEND. Far below I spied the PACK who sent us through a rubbish tip and into a series of climbs before the exhilarating down hill rush into Noong Noch Village. My odometer registered 111km/hr but no one believed me. Over the last two hills and suddenly we were heading ON-IN from one of the most memorable RIDES I imagine BHHB will ever have. Lily and Blackwater were late back but that's another story.

JS Bonnie led the CIRCLE using Sheepshagger as Music to congratulate the HARES two or three times for various reasons, thanking anybody he had forgotten the night before and generally blowing his horn.....
