Invocation For New Beginnings

I AM now fully open to new beginnings, new opportunities & new possibilities.

Every day, every second, every breath I take is the beginning of something new.

Something better & more beautiful.

I know that everything I created before is the result of the woman I WAS.

My future results are shaped by the woman I AM.

My past results do not determine nor predict my future possibilities.

I AM free to manifest new experiences, options & results every second of every day.

There is no limit to the amount of happiness, joy, love, and money I can receive.

All I have to do is get out of my own way and let it in.

I now choose to let it all in.

I give myself permission to receive all the goodness the universe has to offer.

I AM open to receive magic & miracles every day.

I AM now fully open to new beginnings, new opportunities & new possibilities.

Read this invocation until you feel something shift inside:

Until you feel a shimmer of joy, anticipation, or excitement.

Until you feel lighter inside, or feel curious about these new experiences and results.

Use it as often and whenever you like.

Enjoy!

I created this invocation for RISE, my online business healing program for women entrepreneurs.

This one-of-a-kind monthly membership program helps you clear & heal your inner blocks, fears, and limiting beliefs.

Because ALL change and manifestation happen on the INSIDE first.

When you've cleared your inner shit, you're ready to take powerful action.

And you're free to create remarkable results & significant shifts in your business.

You can read all about the program & sign up for it here:

Check it out if you feel called to rise & grow this year.

I'd love to support you & cheer you on!

Love,
