You don't need to journey this part of your story alone.

We're here to provide you with a safe and confidential place to talk through your options. Important, life-changing decisions are best made when you feel calm and clear-headed and have access to all the necessary information.

You have value and deserve to be heard, understood and believed in. We are dedicated to equipping you with the knowledge, support and clarity you need to move forward, no matter your decision.

Get Involved

We depend on the generosity of partners, volunteers and donors who believe in and have a heart to compassionately support expectant mothers in need in Westchester County, New York. If that's you, please connect with us!
