

Join St. Mark Parish and families in celebrating

Respect for Life Weekend: Oct. 15-17

Friday, October 15

Pro-life educational program presented for St. Mark School students.

Saturday, October 16

Mass at 8:00 am (St. Mark Chapel)

Msgr. Jeremiah Kenney will celebrate Mass; the theme of his homily will be, "The Holy Eucharist, Essential for Eternal Life."

Join us for coffee afterwards in the Parish Center, followed by the Respect for Life Workshop.

RESPECT FOR LIFE WORKSHOP

8:45 am to 12:00 noon, Parish Center

"Principles and Choices: Taking a Noble Stand on Tough Issues"

What does the Catholic Church actually teach about abortion, and why? This is your chance to listen to a rational defense of the pro-life position and ask tough questions.

First Speaker: Jack Ames, P.E.

Ames is the founder of Defend Life, the flag ship of pro-life activism in Maryland, Washington, DC and Northern Virginia. Defend Life has brought hundreds of outstanding pro-life speakers to churches, colleges and schools since 1987.

Second Speaker: Camille Pauley

Pauley is the co-founder/president of Healing the Culture, a nonprofit organization that evangelizes and converts people to be deeply, authentically, and permanently pro-life.

Sunday, October 17

Camille Pauley will speak at all Masses after Communion and will meet with parish families after the 11:00 am Mass.

Parish families are invited to join us for coffee and a snack in the Parish Center when the 11:00 am Mass has ended.
