Preacher: Jeff Louie

A Prayer When There Is No Way Out

Third week in the series: Prayers For the Moment

Habakkuk 3

In the Bible, there are prayers of asking, prayers of confession and lament, ones that praise God for what he has done, will do, or simply for who he is. But in Habakkuk 3, a most unusually prayer takes form. The prophet realizes the situation and solution results in terror within him. He realizes the true fear is not in the situation around him, and that his true joy is not in possessions, but in God's mercy.

Discussion Questions:

1. Describe a time in your life where you did not like the situation, neither did you like the impending options.
2. Why do you think we fear people around us more than God?
3. What thing, person, situation would be the last possession you could let go in life? How would you feel if it were taken from you? Where would God be?
4. Have you ever experienced a situation of the terror of the moment and a peace through God?
