Praying During Uncertain Times

Fourth week in the series: Prayers For the Moment

Daniel 9:1-19

The prophet Daniel lived in unsettled and uncertain times—times resembling those in which we ourselves are living. The question is: how should we pray during such times? How should we pray when the times are unsettled and uncertain? Daniel's prayer at the beginning of Daniel 9 gives us a wonderful example--a wonderful example of how to pray.

Discussion Questions:

1. What word or words would you use to describe the times in which we are currently living?
2. What word or words would you use to describe your feelings about the immediate future?
3. Do you think God is trying to get our nation's attention through the events currently taking place? Why or why not?
4. If you do think God is trying to get our nation's attention, what do you think he is telling us?
5. How do you think we should be praying right now, both individually and collectively? Why?
