When You Don't Belong

First week in the series: FLOURISH

1 Peter 1:1-2

Do you feel, somehow, that you don't belong? C.S Lewis said that the sense that we are treated in this world as strangers is part of our "inconsolable secret." What can we do about it?

Discussion Questions:

1. Peter calls us "sojourners," or resident foreigners, whose home is in heaven. How do you resonate with this quote from C.S. Lewis? "The sense that in this universe we are treated as strangers, the longing to be acknowledged, to meet with some response, to bridge some chasm that yawns between us and reality, is part of our inconsolable secret."

2. If you are a believer in Jesus Christ, what does it mean to you that:
 - a. Dreamed of you?

 - b. Set you apart to serve his redemptive purposes?

 - c. Called you to believe the gospel?

 - d. Forgave you for your sins?

3. How do you think these aspects of God's call of you can help you live as a sojourner on earth until the day that you arrive at your true home?
