God's Work in the Mess

First week in the series: JOSEPH
Genesis 37:1-11

We begin a new series looking at the story of Joseph. This is one of the richest, most detailed personal narratives in the entire Bible. It's a story of family, culture, failure, suffering, and redemption. But mostly it's a story about God's promises being fulfilled. As the story begins, we'll encounter the complicated mess of a family that Joseph comes from. But we'll also see how God gives him some incredible promises to hold onto.

Discussion Questions:

1. What parts of Joseph's overall story seem most relatable to you?
2. What aspects of your life seem out of control or messy right now?
3. What challenges do you expect to face this year?
4. How have you seen God working through your mess?
5. How does the gospel redeem the mess of our lives?
