Moving The Family of God

Eleventh week in the series: JOSEPH

Genesis 45, 46

As news of Joseph's family becomes known, Pharaoh makes a generous offer to Jacob and his sons. They are given a warm welcome and the best of the land. In response, Jacob moves his entire extended family to Egypt. His big decision can help us as we consider the plans of God for our lives. When do we make a change? How do we face transition? How can we know that God's plans are being fulfilled in our lives?

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you respond when you are falsely accused of something?
2. How do you respond when someone else is mistreated?
3. To what extent are you willing to put yourself in danger for the sake of someone else?
4. Are you able to forgive when others have wronged you?
5. Why is transformation necessary for reconciliation?
