The Good Life

13th week in the series: JOSEPH
Genesis 47

The family of Jacob has arrived in Egypt and settled in. In this section, we see Joseph managing the economy of Egypt. As the famine progresses, the Israelites become more prosperous, but the Egyptians become more dependent on the government. We'll explore this contrast, consider the circumstances of our own lives, and discuss what it means to live lives of faith in a Kingdom Economy.

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you think of Joseph's decisions with regard to the Egyptians?
2. When have you seen a dramatic transformation in your circumstances -- either in a positive or negative direction?
3. How does living in a Kingdom Economy change your outlook on the world?
4. When you think about Jesus preparing a place for you, how do you feel?
