Greetings and welcome to Sudbury!

You have chosen a wonderful, historic town to reside in.

As members of the Town of Sudbury's Historic Districts Commission, we are writing to let you know your home is located in one of Sudbury's Local Historic Districts. This means any changes to your home's exterior that can be viewed from a public way require a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Historic Districts Commission. Complete information about how to apply for a certificate can be found on the Historic Districts Commission's homepage on the Town of Sudbury website (see FAQ's):

<https://sudbury.ma.us/historicdistricts/>

Please note the process to apply and receive a Certificate of Appropriateness requires a minimum of four weeks.

Besides granting Certificate of Appropriateness, the Historic Districts Commission is available for general consultation on most matters related to retaining the historic character of houses and structures in Sudbury.

We look forward to meeting you at one of our future meetings.

Sincerely,

The Sudbury Historic Districts Commission
