With current events, some may be anxious regarding their family's safety. Please know at any time we become aware of safety concerns relative to our residents that would be pertinent for them to be aware, we will disseminate said concerns.

There are currently no known threats to Sudbury and we continually monitor and/or collaborate with local, state and federal authorities to identify any such threats. Our department is continually assessing our capabilities as well as the resources from which may request assistance in augmenting our capabilities. If we become aware of any circumstances or intelligence that is concerning relative to Sudbury, we will update everyone.

May we all have a better year ahead! I hope we can all work together in a respectful manner for the benefit of ALL!

Respectfully,

Scott Nix
Chief of Police
