

A Path For Growth

Parental Stress Line Callers

"I should have called a long time ago."

"Thank you for listening and the encouragement."

"It really helped to talk to someone.
I feel a lot better. Thank you."

Parent Support Group Members

"What helped at first was...someone saying they understood - understood that I loved my children but that I just didn't know what to do."

"I felt totally inadequate as a mother...It took a lot of courage to go to that first meeting.
But when I got there, it was amazing to discover a place where parents could talk and get help and understanding instead of criticism."
