Arizona Abortion Laws

Source: <https://www.azpolicy.org/policy-page/arizona-abortion-laws-new>

- Parental consent is required for minors.
- You cannot be coerced into having an abortion. Not safe? Help is available.
- You must be given information 24 hours in advance, about abortion risks, alternatives, gestational age and physical characteristics of your preborn child.
- You must be given information 24 hours in advance, about available support, including perinatal palliative/hospice care if your child may have a life-threatening birth defect or fetal condition.
- An ultrasound must be performed 24 hours in advance, and you must have an opportunity to see the ultrasound and hear your baby's hear beat.
- Abortion cutoff: Up to 24 weeks with exceptions to life of the mother or fetal diagnosis - 9 weeks for chemical abortions (RU-486)
