

Here's your chance to play a starring role in support of one of the School of Theatre, Film and Television's most important programs at the University of Arizona: The Showcase of Talent. Your gift will be honored with a brass plate on a seat in the Marroney Theatre, as well as a silver star in the lobby. It's a visible way to show Tucson theatre lovers your support for our students, or honor a loved one in support of our students.

The goal of our Take Your Seat! campaign is to raise funds for the Showcase of Talent Endowment fund. The annual Showcase of Talent - one of the few programs of its kind in the nation - provides an opportunity for junior and senior Acting and Musical Theatre majors to audition for and interview with industry professionals for theatre, film and television across the country. These potential employers also interview and review portfolios of junior and senior Design/Technology and Dramaturgy majors, as well as present valuable workshops to help students prepare for and transition into the professional world. Some of our students secure employment as a result of the Showcase of Talent, and all receive the invaluable experience of interacting with working professionals.

You can support the Showcase of Talent by "purchasing" one or more seats in the Marroney Theatre. Be a part of this exciting campaign by giving a gift that will make a real difference to students today, and leave a permanent legacy of your generosity in the Marroney Theatre.
