Character Ink 2018-2019 Cottage Classes! Live and Online Options!

Character Ink (CI) is announcing a tentative class offering list for the next school year for all three of our locations. Please note that the classes will be offered based on enrollment as of July 1st (for first semester) and November 1st (for second semester), so if there is a class that you want CI to run, please be sure to register early to be sure that class is full enough.

Registrations are on a first come-first served basis. A deposit of $50 per student (regardless of number of classes) is required with the registration form in order to hold class spots for a student. Students will be invoiced at the beginning of each semester with monthly payments as needed.

You may see the full schedule, prices, registration forms, and descriptions at the Cottage Classes page at the blog. You may also request a registration form by e-mailing characterink@gmail.com.

Character Quality Language Arts (CQLA), Spanish, Speech / Debate, and science classes are two semesters long, sixteen-seventeen weeks per semester. Students registered for CQLA, Languages, Speech / Debate, and/or science classes are committing to one full semester with the option of continuing on during the second semester (which nearly everybody does). All other classes are one semester classes.

If you are registering for CQLA after July 1st or you have questions about levels, please contact Ray at 260 273 8063. Returning CQLA students may be moving up to a new level. Please contact Donna (260-433-4365) for advice on CQLA and composition placement for returning students.

Please realize that our classes are heavily academic (i.e. not extra curricular or club- like). Please note sports and other class conflicts before registering.

CQLA students' complete language arts homework requires 30 mins (for Level A), 45 mins (for Level B), and 60 mins (for Level C) of homework four days a week (non class days); other classes require 30 mins a day for homework. Suggested grades are given for all high school classes via grading sheets periodically throughout the semester.

Note: All CQLA and Meaningful Composition books have samples available at our store:

- CQLA samples
- MC samples

If you desire to see whether your student would fit in a certain level, you may want to consult the samples. You may also talk to Donna about your student's level.

This class will fill up quickly—two semesters of high school credits for science. Labs, tests, lecture, and more. Complete biology course for students working at a high school level in science using Apologia's Biology 2nd edition book. Limited space, and the maximum number will be firm this year.

Spanish I— (two semesters; please commit to one full semester)

This class, appropriate for high school foreign language credit, will cover basic conversation, grammar, and an introduction to Latin American and Spanish cultures. Will be taught by Kayla Reish, who has had four semesters of college Spanish and has used the language in foreign mission work as well as in her nursing work in Texas. This class will dovetail into a Spanish II class the following year to provide two full years of high school Spanish (if desired).

Spanish II— (two semesters; please commit to one full semester)

This class, appropriate for high school foreign language credit, will cover basic conversation, grammar, and an introduction to Latin American and Spanish cultures. Will be taught by Kayla Reish, who has had four semesters of college Spanish and has used the language in foreign mission work as well as in her nursing work in Texas. This class is a continuation of last year's Spanish I to provide two full years of high school Spanish (if desired). Exact class time will be determined by those who enroll in this class.

High School Essays / Timed Essays – 1 semester

This class, using Donna and Joshua's new high school books, Essays Only and Timed Essays, walks high schoolers who have written multi-paragraph papers through the entire essay process—Five Paragraph Essays, 1-3-1 Essays, detailed quotation use, writing with literature and historical examples, persuasive writing, our signature

ADVANCED Checklist Challenge, Donna's 3 P's of Persuasion, and much more. This class equips students for SAT/ACT Essays, contest writing, , other timed writing situations (by the end of the class), and much more.

High School Four Research Reports– 1 semester

This class will take high school students who are accustomed to writing six to eight paragraph reports deeper into report writing in an incremental format. This book uses our signature "Overview Source" method with every step of the research process laid out for the student. Students will use MLA citation methods and will learn to create Works Cited, bibliography cards, outlining cards, formal outlines, and much more. This class prepares students for college research writing and uses Joshua and Donna's updated-for-upper-levels Four Research Reports book. This is one of our most popular classes and usually fills up quickly—and has limited space due to editing demands.

Jump Start I: Remedial Writing for High School — (1 semester)

Remedial Writing (6th through 10th grade writing level—junior high and high schoolers without much writing experience should take this class). This class will use our new book, Jump Start I, in order to teach all previous skills, beginning with two paragraph papers through multi-paragraph writing of all types (essays, reports, and stories)—using CI's Directed Writing

Approach. From now on, this class will be called Jump Start I, and it will not say remediation in its title.

Jump Start II: Remedial Writing for High School — (1 semester)

Remedial Writing (7th through 10th grade writing level—junior high and high schoolers without much writing experience should take this class). This class will use our new book, Jump Start II, in order to teach all previous skills, beginning with four paragraph papers through multi-paragraph writing of all types (essays, reports, and stories)—using CI's Directed Writing Approach. From now on, this class will be called Jump Start II, and it will not say remediation in its title.

Elementary / Middle School Speech — (two semesters)

This class will introduce upper elementary/middle school students (grades 4 to 8 speaking/writing level) to public speaking through a variety of fun speech projects, including introductions, 5 W, re-telling, biographical, dramatic, informative, and more.

High School Speech / Debate — (two semesters)

This class will be a high school class for students who want to get over the fear of public speaking, for students who want to experience different public speaking styles, and for those students who want to prepare themselves for college and life by having public speaking skills. The student will learn a variety of styles like informative, impromptu, dramatic, research based speaking, persuasive, demonstrative, etc. This class is not a book course but a practical application course. This class will be two semesters so can also cover items like listening skills, logical thinking skills, research skills, and power point presentation skills and then apply them in their public speaking.
