

UNOFFENDABLE – WEEK 8 CH. 15 & 16

1. Read Matthew 10:37-39 Matthew records one of the hardest teachings of Jesus in the these verses. Name things in our lives that receive the ultimate attention from us. In other words, what would we be afraid to give up, even for God?
2. If I am a good Christian, and have faith and stuff, will God protect my children? Explain. What if the worst happens, do you still trust Him?
3. What does it mean that your children are on loan from God?
4. What are the things that distract us in our relationship with God? What distracts us from quiet time and prayer time with God? Squirrel!!
5. When you don't follow Christ as we should, do you feel that God is ticked off at you?
6. Are there times when we feel unlovable? Who is the focus on when we feel unlovable? Please share a meaningful Bible verse on God's love for you!
7. Describe what the love of God of God means to you.

READ Matthew 18:1-6

1. Once again, we see the disciples jockeying for a position in heaven. Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?
2. What kind of status did you have as a child, did you help make the rules?
3. Why would Jesus say that we need to change and become like little children? What are the characteristics in a child that God desires to see in us?
4. What can you learn from a child in terms of trust and position when it comes to your own calling in the Kingdom of God?
5. How can children and family become an idol in your heart? Describe a health view of children and family in God's kingdom.
6. How does your love for your children compare to the love that God has for you?.

Verse: "This is how God showed His love among us: He sent His one and only Son into the world that we might live through Him." I John 4:9

Joy: While we have our ups and downs, God's love never fails and it never wavers!
