

This journal is of particular interest to speech–language pathologists and teachers of the deaf and hard of hearing. The readers of CDQ represent a breadth of viewpoints and professional interests, which is also reflected in the diversity of interests and expertise of the editorial board members. Published quarterly.

Types of Manuscripts

The editor of CDQ welcomes submissions of previously unpublished applied and clinical research manuscripts relating to typical and atypical communication across the lifespan. This includes assessment of and interventions for communicative disorders in infants, toddlers, young children, school-age children, youth, and adults. CDQ publishes the following types of manuscripts:

- Quantitative and Qualitative Research Reports (20–25 double-spaced manuscript pages [includes figures, tables, appendices])
- Clinical Forums that report theoretical applications in clinical and educational settings (20–25 double-spaced manuscript pages [includes figures, tables, appendices])
- Research Briefs that report on projects with a single research question for which the method and statistics are familiar to research readers. Focus should be on core findings and meanings/implications (10 double-spaced manuscript pages [includes 50-word abstract of 1 sentence on findings/method and 1 sentence on implications, figures, tables, references])
- Short Tutorials to acquaint readers with specific topics or clinical procedures (5–15 double-spaced manuscript pages [includes figures, tables, appendices])

Manuscript Preparation

Guidelines specified in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th edition, 2020) should be followed. Pay particular attention to the sections concerning guidelines for nonsexist language, avoiding ethnic bias, and disabilities.

1. Title Page. Submit a SEPARATE TITLE PAGE FILE with (a) article title; (b) names of all authors; (c) author affiliations, complete mailing address for contact author, e-mail addresses of all authors; and (d) any acknowledgments, financial disclosure information, author notes, or other text that could identify authors to reviewers.
2. Format: 8½ × 11 in. document; 1-inch margins; double spacing, left alignment, Times New Roman 12-pt. type for text and tables. Include title and abstract. Text and table files MUST BE Word text documents; no PDFs.
3. Tables. Each table should start on a new page. Tables should be double-spaced; please use Word's table functions.
4. Endnotes. Use endnotes sparingly. Number with Arabic numerals starting with 1 and continuing through the article. Example: (see Note 1). NO footnotes.

Figures. Figures should be separate files, with each figure on a new page or file. Figures must be black and white only and production-ready. Because most art will be reduced to fit, use bold type that is large enough to be reduced and still be readable, and make sure rules/tick marks are at least 1 pt. Acceptable electronic formats for art: TIFF, EPS, Word, or Excel. For scans/photos, download the SAGE Image Resolution Guidelines from the Instructions & Forms link at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdq>. If you have trouble when loading Excel files, copy and paste them into a Word document.

Permissions. Obtaining written permission for material such as figures, tables, art, and extensive quotes taken directly—or adapted in minor ways—from another source is the author's responsibility, as is payment of any fees the copyright holder may require. Permissions often take a considerable amount of time to be granted; therefore, start the request process as soon as possible. Material taken from software or from the Internet also requires obtaining permission. Authors can download a Permissions Request form at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdq> (Instructions & Forms Link under Resources head). Read any granted permissions carefully to make sure that the language is broad enough to allow publication in all formats, including electronic and print. Failure to obtain permission will result in either removal of the particular item or pulling the article from the journal issue.

Supplemental Material. Decisions regarding inclusion of supplemental material will be made by the editor as part of the article acceptance process. With the exception of videos and podcasts, supplemental files will be deposited to Figshare and assigned a DOI. Authors are responsible for the scientific accuracy and file functionality of all supplemental files; materials will not be copyedited, typeset, or proofread. Additional information and guidelines are available for download from the Instructions and Forms link at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdq>

Authors for Whom English Is a Second Language. It is highly recommended to have a colleague or copyeditor who is fluent in English re-view the manuscript before submission.
