Title: _____

Authors of research articles are required at the time of submission to disclose to the Editorial Office any potential conflict of interests (eg., consultancies, stock ownership, equity interests, patent-licensing arrangements, lack of access to data, or lack of control of the decision to publish). Such information, unless already disclosed in the submitted manuscript, will be held in confidence while the paper is under review. If the manuscript is accepted for publication, any information on the potential conflict of interest not disclosed in the submitted article, including a lack of control of the decision to publish, will be inserted during typesetting (text to be provided below by corresponding author). The corresponding author is responsible for obtaining signed forms from all authors that have a potential conflict of interest.
