Third Sunday of Easter

ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

Welcome!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us. If you would like more information about St. Rita Church or to register, please go to our website at www.saintritawebster.org and click the "Join the Parish" link. Also, everyone is invited to sign up to receive our weekly E-Newsletter to keep up with all that is happening. On our website click on "Newsletters". We are happy to have you with us!

What is Parish Council? (and how can I help?)

Parish Council is a group of 12-15 representatives of the parish who, along with staff members and the pastor, meet throughout the year to support the mission of the parish.

All are invited to prayerfully consider nominating a parishioner (or yourself!) for the Parish Pastoral Council. Nomination cards will be available in the back of church April 11-May 3.

You can help shape the future of St. Rita Parish!

Please share up to 3 areas or goals you would like to see the Parish Council focus on over the next year.

Use the paper in the pew or submit online here:

In addition to Parish Council, St. Rita has these other volunteer advisory groups who assist with making the parish run smoothly:

Finance Council

Buildings and Grounds Committee

Liturgy Committee

Catholic Youth Organization Board (athletics)

If your skills and interests may be of benefit to any of these, please let us know!

Welcome to the Lord's Table!

Congratulations to the children in our community celebrating their First Communion this weekend:

Reflections on Readings for The Third Sunday of Easter

“Were Not Our Hearts On Fire Within Us?”

Our readings today meet us on our journey (sojourn) back to the Father and lead us to the risen Christ.

Our first reading is from the Acts of the Apostles

(Acts 2:14,22-33). It is perhaps the first ever homily on the risen Christ. Peter, on the day of Pentecost, spoke boldly with the power of the Holy Spirit. Peter explained the link between King David of old and the promise God made to raise up an heir who would reign from his throne forever. “One can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ...”

In our Epistle reading (1 Peter 1:17-21). St. Peter encouraged his Gentile Christian audience at a time of suffering and “sojourning” on their journey back to the Father. They were admonished to invoke the Father and act with reverence. “Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct...”

Our Gospel reading (Luke 24:13:35) is the beautiful story of two dejected disciples who encounter Jesus as they leave Jerusalem on the first Easter Sunday. This is a wonderful parallel to the Mass, presided over by Christ Himself. It has the two main elements of the Mass: the Liturgy of the Word, as Jesus opened the Scriptures to them, and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, as they finally recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. “And it happened that, while He was with them at table, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, but He vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, ‘Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?’”

Every time we attend Mass, Jesus reveals Himself to us through the scriptures as we hear the word of God proclaimed to us. Then, through the persona of the priest, Jesus blesses the bread, says the blessing, breaks it, and gives it to us. How could we not recognize Him as He comes to us each day at Mass. One question we might ask ourselves today is, “Is there anything preventing me from recognizing Jesus as He comes to meet me on the road?”

A Message from your Parish Health Ministry Team

CPR and AEDs

Knowing when and how to use CPR and AEDs could be the difference between life and death for someone experiencing cardiac arrest.

CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation) and AED (Automated External Defibrillator) are emergency techniques used together to save lives during cardiac arrest. CPR maintains blood flow to vital organs via chest compressions, while an AED analyzes the heart's rhythm and delivers an electric shock to restart it.

Key Aspects of CPR and AED

CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation):

Is used when a person is unresponsive, does not have a pulse and is not breathing. It involves manual chest compressions with the goal of maintaining oxygenated blood circulation until medical help arrives.

AED (Automated External Defibrillator)

Is a portable device used on a person in cardiac arrest to check heart rhythm and deliver a shock. The AED is simple to use, with voice instructions prompting the user to apply pads to the bare chest. The goal is to restore normal heart rhythm.

For the best chances of survival, it is important to start CPR and implement the AED as soon as it is available.

Some interesting statistics:

- 70% of all out-of-hospital cardiac arrests happen in the home, so the life you save could be a family member or a friend
- CPR has a significant impact on survival outcomes
- Survival chances decrease by 10% for every minute that immediate CPR and use of an AED is delayed
- Immediate CPR can triple the chance of survival

On May 19 at 6:30 pm, we will host an informational session on CPR and AED use here at St. Rita.

More information will be in next week's bulletin.

For more information visit: www.redcross.org

Spotlight on Vocations

World Day of Prayer for Vocations ~ April 26

We are asked to prayerfully listen to God's call.

Is it to serve on Liturgy Committee?

Is it to join (or start!) a new ministry?

Is it to learn more about religious life?

[Jesus] is the Shepherd who draws us to Himself, whose gaze reveals that life is truly beautiful when one follows Him.

~Pope Leo

Almighty and eternal God,
in your unfailing love you provide ministers for your Church.
We pray for those whom you call to serve. Inspire in them a generous response. Grant them courage and vision to serve your people.

May their lives and service call your people to respond to the presence of your Spirit among us, that, faithful to the Gospel and hope of Jesus the Christ, we may: announce glad tidings to the poor proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free and renew the face of the earth.

Amen.

Next week we will take up a second collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of the dioceses in the United States and its current and former territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support for this appeal helps meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. Find more information at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

As we continue our Catholic Social Teaching conversations about Care for God's Creation, here are some ways to practice that teaching in our everyday lives:

"Nature is God's Art." ~ Pope Francis

- Volunteer on St. Rita's grounds crew to clean, maintain, and beautify the church and school property.
- Plant a tree or a garden.
- Use up and eat leftovers in the fridge. Make casseroles, soups and smoothies.
- Celebrate the feasts of St. Kateri Tekakwitha (July 14) and St. Francis of Assisi, Oct. 4) patrons of Ecology.
- Read, study, and pray Pope Francis' beautiful encyclical Laudato Si- On Care for Our Common Home.
- Check out the Catholic Social Justice Tree in our Narthex at Church for more ideas!

"And God saw all that He had made and behold it was very good."
