FEAST DAY
FEBRUARY 3

This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat. Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat on the feast day of St. Blaise. During the blessing, a cross is formed from two blessed candles that are held over the throat.

Blessing of the Throats will immediately follow all Masses this weekend.

Our Tabernacle Light will burn from February 2 – February 8 in loving memory of the deceased members of St. Rita Church.

Please Remember in Prayer our parishioners and those connected with our parish who have recently died, especially:

Reflections on Readings for the
The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time"Seek Justice, Seek Humility"

For the next three weeks, just before Lent begins, we will be hearing from Jesus' teachings from the Sermon on the Mount. Today, we hear Jesus preach on what God considers worthy of blessing—and it is not the high and mighty, the wealthy, the powerful, or the boastful. God chooses the lowly to bring down the high and mighty. He chooses the weak to bring down the strong; the humble to bring down the proud.

In our first reading (Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13), we hear the prophesy of Zephaniah of the terrible day of the Lord, when all the nations would be punished for their wrongdoing. But, the Lord promised that He "will leave as a remnant in your midst a people humble and lowly, who shall take refuge in the name of the Lord." So, Zephaniah's admonition to the people of Israel was to "seek justice, seek humility; perhaps you may be sheltered on the day of the Lord's anger."

In our Epistle reading (1 Corinthians 1:26-31),

St. Paul explains the wisdom and power of God's calling, which is to be found, paradoxically, where one would least expect. God chooses the foolish (by the world's standards), the weak and the lowly. God chooses us in Christ! "It is due to him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, as well as righteousness, sanctification, and redemption." So, we should never boast in ourselves; "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord."

In our Gospel reading (Matthew 5:1-12), we hear the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which began with eight Beatitudes or blessings. They are a declaration of God's grace on groups of people whom the world would consider the foolish, weak, and lowly. This is a radical departure from what had been considered meriting God's blessings. It is the "remnant" God promised in Zephaniah's prophesy that he "will leave as a remnant in your midst a people humble and lowly."

In today's readings, we are reminded of the countercultural nature of Jesus and His ministry. It is the lowly, the meek and humble of heart who will inherit the kingdom of heaven. So, we would do well to follow the admonition of Zephaniah, "seek justice, seek humility."

FEBRUARY BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Carter G. Woodson & Black History Month

Each February, parents and students across the United States recognize Black History Month through school programs, special lessons, and assignments highlighting figures such as Frederick Douglass, Harriet Tubman, Sojourner Truth, Martin Luther King Jr., and Rosa Parks. Yet far fewer students learn about Carter G. Woodson, the scholar known as the "Father of Black History."

In the early 1930s, Woodson pioneered Black History Week to address the absence of African American history in schools. His efforts later evolved into Black History Month, which by 1976 was widely celebrated in schools, colleges, and universities. During the nation's Bicentennial, President Gerald Ford formally placed Black History Month on the national calendar in February. Today, it remains a vital part of education, guided by annual themes developed by the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH).

During the Jim Crow era, African American students encountered negative stereotypes and curricula that excluded Black history. Woodson, along with W.E.B. DuBois, believed schools were essential to restoring racial pride and consciousness among Black youth. By promoting accurate history, Black History Month helped nurture identity, belonging, and empowerment—contributing to the development of leaders who later shaped the Civil Rights Movement.

We have Low Gluten Hosts available at all Masses.

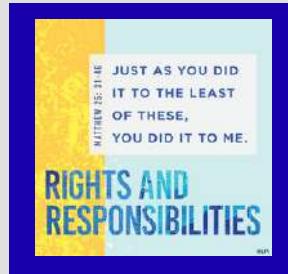

When you arrive for Mass, let the greeter know you would like a low gluten host.

Please come up the center right hand aisle any time during Communion.

Catholic Social Teaching Rights and Responsibilities

As part of our journey exploring the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching, Fr. Tim recently preached about God's Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable.

Keep an ear out to hear more about our next theme: Rights and Responsibilities.

The Church teaches us that all people have rights and asks us to consider the other side of the coin: the responsibilities we have to our neighbors to ensure that their rights are honored, too.

Scout Sunday February 15th

All Cub Scouts and Scouts BSA of St. Rita Parish are invited to attend the 10:30 AM Mass on Sunday, February 15 in celebration of Scout Sunday. Please meet in Room 1 by 10:00 AM. Scouts will process in and sit together as a group. Full Class A uniforms are requested.

A reception for Scouts and their families will follow in the gym.

Scouts who have completed the requirements for their religious emblem and submitted the necessary paperwork to the Diocese are asked to notify Margo Chamberlain (585-802-5750) by February 8 so they may be recognized during Mass.

This celebration is open to all Scouts in our parish, regardless of Pack or Troop affiliation. Those who wish to participate in a role during Mass may sign up here:

We look forward to celebrating Scout Sunday together!
