BETTY HURLEY - By Nora Hurley Dunbar
 MARY ARMSTRONG - By Ellen Samuelson

 from January 26 – February 1 in loving memory of the deceased members of St. Rita Parish.

Reflections on Readings for the
 The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time*"The People Who Walked In Darkness Have Seen A Great Light"*

This could be called the "season of manifestation". Over the past few Sundays, we have seen Christ manifested first, to the Shepherds at His birth, then to the Gentile world through the Magi, then at His baptism as the beloved Son of God, and last Sunday, as the Lamb of God, via John the Baptist. And now this Sunday, Jesus is revealed as the long awaited Davidic King prophesied by the Prophet Isaiah and others.

In our first reading (Isaiah 8:23-9:3), we hear Isaiah's prophesy during a time of great duress as the northern tribes of Israel were being besieged and overrun by the Assyrian Army, beginning with Zebulun and Naphtali. This is the region in which Capernaum is located, the city in which Jesus chose to live and begin His ministry. In great confidence, Isaiah foretold of a future time when a new Davidic King would bring "abundant joy and great rejoicing". We hear this prophesy proclaimed every Christmas Eve during the Mass at night, heralding the birth of the Christ child, the new King of Israel.

In our Epistle reading (1 Corinthians 1:10, 17),

St. Paul sought to end rivalries and division among the Church in Corinth by urging them to focus on Christ as the true center and wisdom of the Church. "I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ . . . that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose."

In our Gospel reading (Matthew 4:12-23), we hear repeated this same passage from our first reading, now being fulfilled in Jesus' return to the very same area decimated by the Assyrians so long ago. Jesus began His public ministry as the new Davidic King, himself the "light shining in the darkness". Jesus began choosing His apostles and started preaching and healing throughout Galilee. Jesus "left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled."

Again, we see the prophesies of the Old Testament being fulfilled in the New Testament by Jesus. This revelation helps us see that God's plan of salvation has been ongoing since the beginning of creation.

Reflection - Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

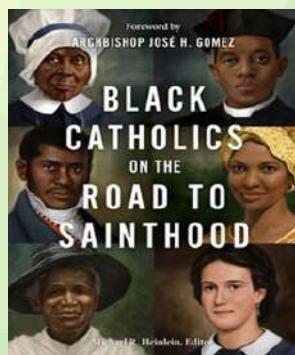

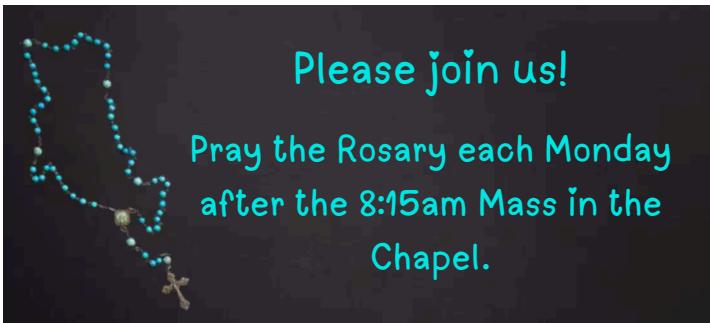

Greetings, my fellow parishioners,

We all have gifts to share with others. Once a week I volunteer at Rochester Hope at St. Michaels' Church. It has been such an enjoyable and rewarding time for me. If I could encourage one person to give a bit of their time, it would be rewarding for you too. By volunteering, you are not just stocking shelves or handing out food, you are embodying Christian compassion and ensuring that no one in our community goes hungry. I hope you accept this invitation and opportunity to share your talent and meet new friends along the way as we help everyone in these uncertain times.

Love and Peace, Albertha Davis

LENTEN RETREAT

With Marie Mozzi

*“You Have Given All to Me...
Now I Return it.”*

FEBRUARY 28, 2026

8:30am - 3:30pm

$70.00

---

Lent provides an opportunity for God to hollow out our hearts, creating a space for conversion. This truly happens when we let God take the lead. What if you let go and let God do the work these 40 days, cooperating in the dance to be transformed. Spend the day exploring ways to create space in the heart, letting Lent be God's work rather than ours.
