Keep it Clean ...

with confidence.

Keeping the air in your facilities clean isn't just desirable, it's crucial. That's why leading Fortune 500 companies from coast to coast turn to us, Tri-Dim Filter Corporation, the indoor environmental specialist.

Founded on innovation, built on service.

Over 50 years ago, our company began with a spark. A brilliant innovation in filter technology that dramatically increased filter performance, delivering superior filtration, reducing operating expenses, and of course, providing cleaner air.

Today, Tri-Dim and its service division continue that tradition of innovation, providing you with the full range of service that you need to ensure a clean, high quality work environment that is efficient and cost effective with the professionalism you expect from an industry leader.

Clean that does more than remove problems – it adds value.

Tri-Dim's service is about more than clean air. It's about creating optimal work conditions and helping to maintain the highest quality of products and services, in addition to delivering the total benefit of a cleaner work environment.

- ▲ A pioneer in air filtration and indoor environmental quality for over 50 years
- ▲ Proven track record of quality service; staff averages over 15 years of experience
- ▲ Turnkey Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) programs
- ▲ Nationwide Coverage
- ▲ Staff certified and trained by leading organizations in the industry
