Announcing “RE/MAX Town Centre-Commercial”

RE/MAX Town Centre Commercial division, specialist in sales and leasing of office space and shopping centers, was officially launched Jan 1, 2010. Due to the explosive growth in commercial property sales and leasing, several new agents have been added to the division. In 2011, our commercial division has ventured into Business Brokerage and Tenant Representation as well and have brokered several business' including a well know restaurant/bar in Downtown Orlando. Angela Clark, seasoned veteran in commercial properties facilitated the sale. “Having the RE/MAX brand, the latest technology and a worldwide network of commercial agents to partner with, has enabled us to have the competitive advantage in the commercial market”, boast Bill Corio, Adrian Alperin, Ryan Moody and Jeff Haegar, four of RE/MAX Town Centre’s commercial executives.

RE/MAX has been recognized by two prestigious real estate industry surveys, based on outstanding performance in 2011. RE/MAX was named to the National Real Estate Investor Magazine’s list of the “Top 25 Commercial Brokerage Networks” and the Lipsey Company’s “Top 25 Commercial Real Estate Brands” survey.

“We’re honored to be named among the elite and most successful commercial networks,” said Mike Reagan, RE/MAX Senior Vice President, Business Alliances. “RE/MAX Commercial is taking an aggressive stance in this improving market and our offices and agents are building on RE/MAX brand recognition, using their expertise and the resources available to them through the RE/MAX network to serve their customers.

The 2 RE/MAX Town Centre offices’ employs approximately 70 agents and support staff in its 6 divisions and expects to have over 100 seasoned professionals by the end of the year. “In 2007 RE/MAX® International named our office the fastest growing RE/MAX in the state,” said Orden. “I have the Golden Eagle Award hanging behind my desk. That’s an honor I don’t take lightly!”
