Orlando tops the list of the top 10 most attractive U.S. cities for first-time homebuyers

Orlando, FL, January 2016 : According to national correspondent lender The Money Source, Orlando tops the list of the top 10 most attractive U.S. cities for first-time homebuyers in 2016.

Check this out!

Orlando, Florida - A low unemployment rate, a very affordable median home price and strong job growth landed this city on the list. While much of Florida is dependent on retirees and snowbirds, Orlando is the youngest non-college town in the state, according to Forbes. The presence of large tourism and entertainment companies like Universal and Disney in the city attract millions of visitors each year and strong economic growth.

Unemployment rate: 4.5%

Median home price: $155,500
