Registration:
Attendees will be charged a $50.00 fee per day, which includes the training plus the morning snacks and the awards lunches. The cost of the banquet meal Thursday evening is $75.00/person with the Chapter covering the balance of the cost. The cost of the Board of Directors meeting dinner for attendees is $20.00/person, all alcohol will be on separate tickets.

We take checks, debit and credit cards. In order to keep costs under control this year payments must be made by December 1, 2019 to reserve your place at the BOD dinner, luncheon, dinner and meeting. We will be using a ticket system to attend the events this year in order to cut down on the number of non-payments and to keep our costs in line with the budget. Just like with Ed Institute, you will receive a packet upon arrival with your pre-paid tickets.

8:30 – 10:00  Backside of the Building Code, Chapter 12 & Beyond – Tom Meyers, Building Intuition, LLC. This class is intended to focus on nonstructural topics that are not typically covered in detail during code training. The class will address little emphasized areas of the code that have resulted in tragic fire consequences, such as MCM’s regulated in Chapter 14 and foam plastics in Chapter 23. The class will also cover interior environment, roofing, glass, special construction, and emerging issues in safeguards during construction. Finally, the typically glossed-over requirements for interior finishes will be considered in detail.
