

Embodying the Cosmic Crystals MORGANITE

Raquel SPENCER

Day 1

We begin this series with a powerful influx of Cosmic Morganite pulsing through our fields. The energy of Cosmic Morganite comes in with a strong, no-nonsense confidence to clear distorted energies around past relationships of all kinds.

As humans, we experience many different types of relationships. Lovers, friends, family, and strangers all have an impact on the totality of who we are. Cosmic Morganite brings the frequency of Divine Love with such power and neutrality to dismantle patterns still holding an unbalanced or negative charge.

Overseen by the Architects of the Divine Vehicle, this series and work quickly and effectively clear and upshift your matrix of Light to embody the strength and compassion of this magnificent Cosmic frequency of Light.

Allow the memories which are triggered to simply surface and dissipate with ease and grace.

Breathe and remember that you are Light.
