

Embodying the Cosmic Crystals MORGANITE

Raquel SPENCER

Day 4

The frequency of Cosmic Morganite continues to surprise me with its absolute unwavering strength and compassion.

Embodying this frequency into your matrix expands your capacity to stand firmly in your truth. You are Divine Love.

Your outer world may begin to show signs of re-alignment, as the awareness of distorted relationships surfaces with clarity. Cosmic Morganite will support you to no longer compromise when it comes to self-love, respect, and how you allow others to treat you.

Set your intention to shift any distorted relationships with ease and grace. Call forth the Cosmic Morganite to purify any situations, bringing quick resolution with the highest outcome for all involved.

I highly recommend another Epsom / sea salt / or baking soda bath, if possible, to help you clear and detox at the cellular level. I also recommend washing your sheets with a few drops of lavender or lemon oil and a handful of sea salt added to the wash. This helps to clear on an energetic level.

Breathe and remember that you are Light.
